An Important Lesson I Will Never Forget

I will never forget the first time I got lost. I was shopping with my parents. We were at Macy's department store, and I was so excited to see such a huge place. Suddenly, I turned around to ask my mother something, but she was gone. I began crying and screaming at the top of my lungs. A salesclerk came up to me and asked if I was OK. She used the store's microphone and notified the customers that a little girl in blue jeans and a white cap was lost. Two minutes later my mom and Dad came running to find me. We all cried and hugged each other. As a mother with children of my own, I remember that day and always ask my children to stay close together when we go shopping.

8. How many drafts should you write when writing an essay?
  - A. You should write four: a shaping draft, a style draft, an editing draft and a final draft.
  - B. You should just write one. Do it quickly and give it the teacher. Sloppy work is fine.

9. Is Dr. Baker always happy to have you come to his office to talk about what you are reading or writing?
  - A. Yes, he really enjoys working with students. His door is always open.
  - B. No, he doesn't want to see students.

10. Where is Dr. Baker's office?
  - A. He doesn't have an office.
  - B. It's in room 366-9.
